Which? Best hearing aid provider overview

Following an extensive survey and the views of over 400 Which? members who had purchased hearing aids in the last 3 years, independent retailers came out top with a customer score of 84%. This score was based on customer satisfaction and recommendation which included levels of service and aftercare.

Are we qualified?

Our Audiologists hold advanced degrees from accredited universities and have special training in the identification, assessment and non-medical treatment of hearing disorders. They complete a full-time internship, pass a demanding national examination and must be fully licensed. This makes our Audiologists the most qualified to advise you on your hearing.

How long have we been helping people with hearing difficulties?

We have 35 years experience and have fitted over ten thousand digital hearing instruments. An audiologist who has fitted thousands of patients is more likely to recognise and solve problems. Fitting hearing aids correctly is both an art and a science. Our Audiologists will maximise the potential of your hearing instruments by using all of the features of your ideal aid, while the less skilled might fail to activate up to 50% of the hearing aid's capabilities.

How will you determine what is best for my hearing situation?

Our Audiologist will take a detailed history of your hearing problem, your expectations, and lifestyle. In addition a thorough tone and speech testing assessment will be carried out. Measurements for comfortable hearing levels are also tested.

Our comprehensive testing is to improve your hearing sensibility and re-establish normal hearing perception.

Are there any hearing aid manufacturers you recommend?

As Independent Audiologists, we work with all the hearing aid manufacturers from around the world. Every hearing loss is unique and one manufacturer product line may not meet the needs of everyone! As we work with the world's choice, we are in the best position possible to select the correct device that will match your needs.

The amazing video otoscope

Let's show you what's happening inside...

Our state-of-the-art video otoscope system can show inside your ear canal right up to your ear drum, all visible on the colour screen.

See inside your ear like never before, with no discomfort whatsoever!

Video otoscopy allows us to clearly visualise the ear canal and ear drum by projecting an image onto a computer monitor.

Using video otoscopy, we can see first hand any conditions such as the presence or build up of wax, or debris in the canal that may cause problems with your hearing.

Give your ears a clean bill of health!

Video otoscopy ultimately provides both patients and audiologists with a greater understanding and appreciation of what is happening inside your ear.

Our free Audiometric Test will help us identify your hearing difficulties

If you want to know more about how better hearing can be achieved - your local Hearing Aid Audiological experts will give you the best advice FREE. There is never any obligation and all the valuable information is available to you.

FREE AUDIOMETRIC TEST

Following a discussion on the history of your hearing and a brief ear examination, our Hearing Aid Audiologist will carry out a free comprehensive hearing test. You are asked to respond to a variety of frequencies which allow the Hearing Aid Audiologist to plot your results on a graph. With the results explained, the test is over... it's as simple as that!

We often find it is a great help when testing your hearing to have a familiar voice with you. Part of our full hearing assessment is to present speech in what is called a Speech Clarity Test. A family member or close friend is ideal and they are free to help you with the hearing test as well as ask questions which you may not have thought of yourself.

COUNCIL PLANNING £120M MORE CUTS

Carnival parade hits the streets

THE town centre was awash with colour on Friday as this summer's Basingstoke Festival officially began.

More than 500 performers danced through the streets accompanied by giant puppets, carnival music and a 10-foot tall metal robot.

The annual festival will run until July 10 and offer around 100 different events, attractions and live performances for all ages and interests.

County says it has 'no choice' but to look at making more savings

By Christian Wilson

BASINGSTOKE'S most vulnerable people are set to be hit hard after the county council announced plans to sanction £120million of new cuts to services.

Hampshire County Council revealed this week that it had "no choice" but to make the savings by 2020 – with children's services once again being targeted.

The biggest losers from the authority's proposed medium term financial strategy would be adult health and care, which is being lined up for £55.7m of cuts, at a time when the idea to charge some users of the service is at public consultation.

Children's services, including child protection and adoption, are also due to be slashed by £30m, while the economy, environment and transport department would be cut by £19m.

The cuts would also see a £15.1m reduction in the service that allocates community grants, with leader Roy Perry telling Monday's cabinet that any reductions in funding would not be done with "any great joy in our hearts".

He added: "They're done because we have that legal obligation, and what we will do our best to do is see that the services are still provided as well as we possible can for the people of Hampshire."

The council announced last year that £98m of savings would have to be delivered by April 2017, with plans to close all but one of Basingstoke and Deane's 11 children's centres to save £8.5m a key part of that.

And with the borough's frontline services already feeling the strain, the leader of Basingstoke's Liberal Democrats group has accused the county council of "not wanting to run the services anymore".

"This is appalling and is totally unjustified when they're sitting

Lorry trip increase past school is given approval

A DECISION to allow an increase in the number of lorry trips along a Hatch Warren residential road to a food waste plant has been branded "ludicrous".

By Christian Wilson

Concerns had been passed onto Hampshire County Council over the amount of trucks travelling through Woodbury Road to the anaerobic digestion plant in Kennel Farm, Dummer.

With St Marks CofE Primary School sitting next to the road, residents and councillors alike felt that the 22 lorries permitted to travel past the site each day was too many and should be reduced for safety reasons.

But the county council last Wednesday granted permission for the maximum amount of HGV trips passing along Woodbury Road to and from the plant to instead be increased to 38 on a temporary basis for the next year.

The authority's councillor for Basingstoke North West, Stephen Reid, said: "It's just not right for Hatch Warren.

"If there's a coming together between a lorry and a child, the lorries aren't going to come second, meaning a child could get seriously hurt, or worse."

Hatch Warren resident Sam Weller has led the call for the number of vehicles travelling on behalf of Tamar Renewable Power Basingstoke Ltd (TRPB) to be decreased.

And while labelling Tamar as "bad neighbours", he also claimed that the developers had been breaking previously agreed conditions not to pass through Woodbury Road at busy times, including during the school run.

Mr Weller, of Woodstock Mead, said: "If Tamar stuck to the actual terms of the agreement, we could probably live with it as the digester is undoubtedly a good thing, but they have never done so before and I have doubts that they will now.

"We're not talking about Transit vans, these are 42 ton lorries, enormous things that are driving at supposedly safe school routes.

"Tamar have broken every promise before and a leopard doesn't change its spots."

The council's regulatory committee were told to disregard any evidence of previous infringements to conditions from the developer when making its decision – something criticised by borough councillor Terri Reid.

"I'm disappointed for residents and for the children who have to cross the road," said the councillor for Hatch Warren and Beggarwood.

"It's ridiculous that they've took no notice of the clear evidence we've provided.

"It seems ludicrous and I don't think it's right at all."

The change will mean an extra 5,000 truck trips this year to the plant, which currently breaks down 30,000 tonnes of food waste annually.

Tamar commercial director, Richard Brookes, said: "We are working hard to make sure that all vehicles travelling to and from our plant use the correct route and at the right times.

"We fully recognise people's concerns about heavy traffic running through Hatch Warren, and we'll continue to take prompt action to address any concerns."

• As many as 38 lorry trips a day will now be permitted along Woodbury Road, which contains a popular school crossing (inset)

Two men stabbed in Basingstoke underpass

TWO men were stabbed during an altercation with a rival group in a Basingstoke underpass last week.

The pair were walking through the subway between Basingstoke Leisure Centre and the Winklebury Estate at around 6.30pm last Thursday when an argument broke out with two other men.

A fight broke out as a result, with both the unnamed men, who are understood to be in their late 30s, suffering knife wounds.

Both men are currently being treated at Southampton General Hospital, with one of the victims described by Hampshire police as being in a "stable condition".

Two men have been arrested on suspicion of causing grievous bodily harm with intent and are being questioned by officers in relation to the incident.

A cordon was temporarily put in place for a number of hours at the scene of the crime, with police appealing to anyone in the area at the time to come forward with information to help them with their enquiries.

Detective Sergeant Oliver Lage, said: "I need to speak to anyone who was in the area at the time of the incident.

"It happened in broad daylight and it is likely someone saw what happened.

"Did you see or hear the group of four men arguing? Did you witness the attack?

"I would urge anyone with information to come forward and speak to us."

Anyone with information should call the non-emergency number 101, quoting crime reference number 44160225172.

Jo Cox tributes

BASINGSTOKE: MPs and councillors have paid their respects to murdered MP for Batley and Spen, Jo Cox.

Mrs Cox was fatally shot, stabbed and kicked multiple times in Birstall, West Yorkshire last Thursday as she prepared to hold a constituency surgery.

Birstall constituent Thomas Mair, 52, has been charged with the murder, with Basingstoke MP Maria Miller taking to Twitter to condemn the person responsible.

She wrote: "This was an appalling attack on Jo Cox, who was going about her work as an MP, supporting her community.

"The murder of an MP is an attack on UK democracy."

Former deputy leader of Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council, and current MP for North East Hampshire, Ranil Jayawardena, said: "My thoughts and prayers – and, I'm sure, those of all in North East Hampshire – are with Jo's family and friends at this time terrible time."

Basingstoke Labour group leader Paul Harvey added: "It's just terrible and is such a sad thing to happen to someone who was just doing their job."

Own power

BASINGSTOKE AND DEANE: A solar scheme to help reduce Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council's energy bills and carbon footprint has begun following the installation of solar panels on five council-owned buildings.

Photovoltaic (PV) solar panel systems, which convert sunlight into electricity even on cloudy days, have now been installed on the roofs of the civic offices in London Road, John Arlott Pavilion, Brighton Hill and Eastrop depots and also Eastrop Boathouse.

The power generated can be used every day within the buildings, meaning that the council will have to buy less electricity – saving more than £200,000 over 20 years.

Hero cop Vikki in the mix for bravery award

A FEMALE Basingstoke police officer who was severely injured during a dangerous 15-minute grappling match with a drunk driver has been nominated for a prestigious policing award.

By Christian Wilson

Hampshire Constabulary's PC Vikki Sharpe became involved in a violent roadside struggle with Innocent Fowung after she pulled him over for driving erratically on the M3 near Basingstoke on June 18, 2014.

The roads policing officer managed to handcuff one of the driver's hands to the steering wheel and even held onto the side of the car and used her CS Gas when Fowung turned on the engine and rammed her into the side of her vehicle.

PC Sharpe suffered a broken hand and damage to her ribs, back and shoulder as a result, but still managed to get into her damaged police car, take up pursuit and eventually arrest her attacker before collapsing.

And the Basingstoke and Whitchurch-covering officer's heroics are to be recognised for the whole country to see next month at the Police Federation's 21st Police Bravery Awards.

She said: "I'm really honoured to be nominated for such a prestigious award, although I see it as just doing my job.

"The incident took its toll on me both physically and mentally.

"It has made me doubt myself, my abilities and why I am a police officer."

Fowung, 46, of Deedmore Road in Coventry, received consecutive sentences of 12 months and 10 months last July, while PC Sharpe had to spend three months off work because of the assault.

And with the latest stats showing 1,007 assaults on Hampshire police officers took place last year, the chairman of the county's police federation, John Apter, was quick to praise the bravery and professionalism of PC Sharpe.

He said: "Police officers perform a difficult and dangerous job and it is never acceptable for an officer to be assaulted while working to protect the public.

"It was a nightmare situation for PC Sharpe to be in on her own, as she went from a routine check to ending up being in a fight for her life.

"She's a winner anyway as far as we're concerned and encapsulates the very best of Hampshire Constabulary.

"Sometimes as a country we tend to focus on the real negative side of policing, but there's far more good, like the Vikki Sharpes of this world."

A total of 69 officers from across the country's 40 police forces have been nominated to appear at the awards at the July 14 ceremony at The Dorchester in London, as well as a reception at 10 Downing Street.

PC Sharpe has already received a Chief Constables' Commendation for bravery, a Crown Court Judge Commendation for bravery and has been commended by her District Commander for exceptional leadership in the past.

Hampshire Constabulary Chief Constable Olivia Pinkney added: "PC Sharpe acted instinctively in what was a violent and dangerous situation, she acted without hesitation and even though badly injured continued to do her job on behalf of the public.

"I am so proud of Vikki, she is a credit to the Constabulary."

Child cruelty

HAMPSHIRE: The number of child cruelty and neglect cases in Hampshire has increased by 268 per cent in the last three years, new statistics from the NSPCC have revealed.

Hampshire Constabulary recorded a total of 254 cases in 2014/15, compared to the 69 reported in 2012/13.

World Party

BASINGSTOKE: The range of different cultures of Basingstoke residents is to be celebrated in the town this weekend at Eastrop Park.

Charity Basingstoke Multicultural Forum (BMF) hosts its sixth Basingstoke World Party from 11.30am to 5pm on Saturday.

Bollywood dancers, African music and dance, Brazilian Capoeira, Chinese opera and Eastern European music and dance will be on show on the World Stage.

Choirs vs cancer

BASINGSTOKE: A total of £649.20 was raised for a Basingstoke charity by Tadley singers from their Summer Concert earlier this month.

Musical director Dai Ogborn, who was recently awarded a British Empire Medal, led the choir as they put on a concert in support of Ark Cancer Centre Charity on Friday, June 10.

£120m cuts being planned by council by 2020

• From front page

on lots of reserves," said Gavin James.

"They have choices on these cuts, but this will have a massive impact, we don't have these services for no reason.

"Their intentions are clear in that they don't want to run these services anymore."

The council has been given six months to decide how to implement the cuts, with the leader of Basingstoke's Labour group, Paul Harvey, arguing that services had been through too much already.

He said: "This is another example of the county council not understanding what they're doing to communities like Basingstoke.

"Frontline key services are being decimated, and the council is doing it in such a cold way that they don't see the damage its causing.

"They're political traitors and there has to be a point when someone says enough is enough."

The county council has pointed to a £48m reduction in its grant received from central Government as the reason for the cutbacks.

Councillor for Basingstoke North West, Stephen Reid, said: "It's a no choice situation.

"We're not doing it because we want to do it, but in times of stringency, that's the way local government finance is going.

"We have to plan ahead and not leave things to the last minute because we would then have to stop services."

He added: "This way we will be able to at least keep services and make them efficient."

Voters go to the polls for EU referendum

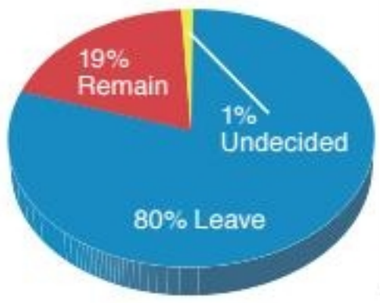
BASINGSTOKE residents will finally have their say today on whether they want to remain or leave the European Union.

Campaigning for both sides has been fierce since a date for the referendum was set in February, with the remain camp claiming that Britain's place in the EU means more jobs and increased security.

But Vote Leave campaigners believe that leaving the EU, which the UK has been a member of since 1973, will result in millions of pounds being saved each week and greater control over the country's borders.

An online poll conducted by the Observer saw 80 per cent of the 377 participants say they want to leave, with 19 per cent voting remain and only one per cent undecided.

And the people of Basingstoke and Deane will now get to have their final say as they cast their vote at one of the 116 polling stations across the borough.



Binbot brings the party to the town

A 10-FOOT tall pink robot led a carnival parade through the town centre on Friday to mark the start of the Basingstoke Festival in typically crazy fashion.

By Christian Wilson

The lead-up to the annual summer showpiece has been marked with the appearance of a five-metre dragon, a giant fire-breathing bird and a mechanical disco turtle over the last couple of years.

And this year's opening day didn't disappoint either as Binbot, who is made entirely from recycled materials, walked through the Top of Town towards Eastrop Park, waving to hundreds of residents along the way.

The strange sights didn't end there however, as the robot was accompanied on its journey by giant puppets, colourfully-clad dancing school children, pecking pigeons, and even giant kangaroos.

Basingstoke and Deane Mayor Jane Frankum started the parade, and said: "I am very glad so many people brought their families and friends along to join in the carnival parade fun.

"It really set the tone of the festival and showed people that working together can create something wonderful."

Friday's Green at Heart-themed parade marked the start of 24 days of more than 100 different events and performances as part of the fifth Basingstoke Festival, which is coordinated by the borough council.

A range of different street performances, productions of Shakespeare's Hamlet and the appearance of Tibetan Monks and opera star Russell Watson are just a few of the upcoming acts on the programme.

And the curtain will then be brought down in dramatic fashion on July 9 and 10 when grime artist P Money and ska veterans The Neville Staple Band headline the two-day Basingstoke Live music festival.

Council deputy leader Terri Reid said: "It was just an incredible day and was fantastic to be there.

"It was lovely to see so many schoolchildren involved and the robot showed what's so great about the festival, it's so quirky, and is something you don't expect to see.

"The festival gets better and better every year and I'd challenge anyone to pick up the festival programme and not find something they want to see."

Running appeal

BASINGSTOKE: Residents are being urged to join the Ark2016 to run the upcoming Basingstoke Half Marathon.

A team of 30 runners pounded the pavement at the popular annual event last year, raising around £9,000 for Ark Cancer Centre Charity and winning the Fastest Charity Team trophy in the process.

And the charity, which is looking to raise £5million to build a cancer treatment centre in Basingstoke, is looking to better that at this year's race on October 2.

Director of fundraising Mark Jones said: "I was delighted that last year's team achieved success on the fundraising front, and winning the Fastest Charity Team trophy was an added bonus."

Entry for the event is £30, with anyone interested in joining the Ark2016 team urged to email mark.jones@arkcancer-charity.org.uk.

Search begins for this year's AWE young scientist

THE search is on to find 2016's Young Scientist of the Year in the annual competition run by the Atomic Weapons Establishment (AWE).

Teachers across Hampshire are being encouraged to nominate pupils who have excelled in a particular science field, and show great enthusiasm for the subject.

This can include pupils who have received outstanding results, regularly attend school clubs, or just have the determination to excel in the field.

Andrew Randewich, AWE chief scientist and competition judge, said: "AWE hopes that this competition will spark an interest in science among pupils across Hampshire.

"At AWE we try to inspire pupils by showing them just how exciting science can be, and I think if we encourage younger pupils then we have a chance of getting them hooked on the subject."

As well as the AWE Young Scientist of the Year 2016 trophy, the overall winner of the competition will have the opportunity to attend the prestigious Royal Institute Christmas Lectures in London.

Teachers can download an application form from awe.co.uk.

The closing date for submissions is October 6.

Step forward for leisure park plans

PLANS to majorly revamp Basingstoke Leisure Park have taken another step forward after councillors agreed to begin drawing up a development agreement for the project last week.

By Christian Wilson

The £200million proposal would see the amount of facilities at the 60-acre site in Worting Road double, including the construction of a brand new aquadrome, dual use ice rink arena and community-use velodrome.

Other changes would see a surfing centre, skate park, climbing wall and "survival style" challenges arrive at the park, as well as a 300,000 sq ft designer shopping outlet – bringing over 2,400 new jobs to the area in the process.

Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council agreed to award the contract for the redevelopment to NewRiver Retail in April, paving the way for the property investor to foot the whole bill for the project.

But concerns from the borough's Labour group over the inclusion of a retail park in the leisure park plans led to a delay in the process, before the council's scrutiny committee voted to continue its discussions with NewRiver Retail on Tuesday night.

Cabinet member for finance, service delivery and improvement, Robert Tate, said: "This is a great opportunity to create something excellent for the borough and its residents – bigger and better – and at no cost to the council.

"This project is taking a significant step forward and I look forward to increasingly positive engagement with NewRiver Retail as the scheme develops and to hearing what local people think of the proposals."

The majority of the current facilities at the leisure park have remained unchanged since they were built in the 1980s and 1990s, with NewRiver drawing up the proposed transformation after discussions with leisure operators.

But following last week's decision, Basingstoke Labour group called for a rival developer to come forward for the project – insisting that customers would be "poached" by a shopping outlet, to the detriment of the town centre.

Group leader Paul Harvey said: "We're really disappointed that the council is not listening as the evidence is clear that there will be significant harm to the town centre if this goes ahead.

"We support the regeneration of the leisure park, but we don't want a shopping outlet, so the fact that there's been no competition to NewRiver is wrong.

"It's perverse that the council can celebrate the opening of Waitrose and John Lewis and then do this, they don't care about Festival Place or the Top of Town."

A planning application on the project is expected to be prepared by the end of the year, and sent out to public consultation.

NewRiver Retail property director Allan Lockhart said: "Our aim is to bring excellent new leisure facilities to Basingstoke and we have assembled an internationally renowned leisure-focussed development team to deliver these.

"The scheme has the potential to deliver substantial benefits for the council, local businesses and residents - almost £200m of construction investment, over £500m of economic activity, and the creation of an estimated 2,400 jobs."

Care consultation

HAMPSHIRE: The county council has opened a period of public consultation on plans to start charging some people who use adult social care.

The Observer reported last week that Hampshire County Council was considering whether to make the change in order to help save £1.5million.

And the authority is now seeking the opinion of residents on the proposals, which include billing people for more than one carer should they require extra help, and charging those at nursing homes for periods of absence.

As many as 12,000 people could be affected by the changes should they be approved, with the council due to assess whether or not residents are financially able to contribute to their care.

The consultation will run until August 26 and can be viewed at consultations.hants.gov.uk/consultationdetails.aspx?consultationid=1733.

Rotary club hands over cash lifeline

MORE than 20 Basingstoke charities and community projects were handed a massive £52,000 boost last week.

Members of The Rotary Club of Basingstoke Deane have been raising the valuable funds over the past 12 months.

And the club presented its final donations for the year to local organisations at its annual charities night on Tuesday, with match-funding ensuring that the overall tally rose to around £75,000.

Rotarians have been raising money through a wide variety of events over the last year, including the annual Rotary International Boxing Night in March, with club president Paul Temple expressing his happiness with the figure.

He said: "I am delighted that the Basingstoke Deane Rotarians have been able to help and support so many good causes and local projects during my 12 months as club president.

"I am also pleased that representatives from many of the wide range of organisations that we have been involved with over the last year were able to attend the charities night.

By Christian Wilson

"This event really showcased how the club has been able to make a difference in the local community and wider world.

"I am grateful to my fellow Rotarians for their wonderful support during my time as president, and it was heartening to hear so many representatives of charities and other organisations describe how our members have made such a positive impact."

Ark Cancer Centre Charity, The Pink Place, Pelican Cancer Foundation, the Mayor's Charity Appeal and Basingstoke Samaritans were among the local charities to benefit.

Director of fundraising at Ark Cancer Centre Charity, Mark Jones, said: "The support from the Basingstoke Deane Rotarians for the charity and cancer treatment centre project has been fantastic."

He added: "As well as providing generous financial backing, the Rotarians have been a great help in supporting the charity at events and in raising awareness of the £5million fundraising appeal which will help to fund the new centre."

Nearly 200 caught in road clampdown

THE results of a road safety crackdown by police on motorists on the A34 and motorways in Hampshire have been released.

In total 187 drivers were caught committing various offences on major roads across the county between Monday, June 6 and Friday, June 10.

Three police vehicles patrolled the M27, M3, A34, M40, M4, M275 and M271 as part of the clampdown, which saw a focus on motorists who appeared distracted at the wheel.

A total of 147 drivers were seen using mobile phones while driving as part of the Hampshire Constabulary and Thames Valley Police-led Operation Tramline.

Police also stopped 18 drivers who were not in proper control for other reasons, including one offender who was reading a novel as they drove along the M271.

And six were not wearing a seatbelt, eight were deemed to be carelessly driving, while one person was observed and dealt with for committing an "indecent act" as they drove at speed on the M40.

Sergeant Paul Diamond, from the Roads Policing Commerical Vehicle Unit, said: "We want to keep these people out of court just as much as we want to prevent casualties."

Brain singing

BASINGSTOKE: An Alzheimer's Society service for people with dementia in Basingstoke has celebrated its 10th anniversary.

Singing for the Brain is a social activity for people with dementia and their carers, enabling them to express themselves and sing with others in a similar situation.

The service held its first sessions at St Mary's in old Basing in March 2006, with the charity's services manager for North Hampshire, Kelly Inwood, admitting that it seemed "hardly a moment had passed" in that time.

She said: "Even when many memories are hard to retrieve, music can sometimes still be recalled - if only for a short while.

"The sessions help people with dementia communicate, improving their mood and leaving them feeling good about themselves."

Store reopens

BASINGSTOKE: The Lidl store in Worting Road reopened its doors to Basingstoke residents last Thursday for the first time since the end of April.

The new-look supermarket contains a brand new state-of-the-art bakery, while the car park has also been extended for customers.

Charity aims to catch town's most wanted

BASINGSTOKE residents got the chance to see the most wanted criminals currently on the run on their streets as part of a countywide appeal last week.

By Christian Wilson

A van with a large digital screen showing the faces of suspects currently being pursued by Hampshire Constabulary officers made its way through the town on Friday.

Independent charity Crimestoppers achieved huge success from a similar 'Most Wanted' campaign in March, as over half of the individuals who appeared on the digital van were arrested thanks to new information.

And Crimestoppers are hoping that the new scheme will help produce similar results this time around.

Charity regional manager Julia Hughes said: "Last time the digital van came to Hampshire we received 28 pieces of information from the public on wanted individuals.

"Crimestoppers' Most Wanted works because people understand they can safely and anonymously speak up about criminals without having their identities revealed or having to go to court."

A total of five suspects from Basingstoke are on the current list of over 100 from across Hampshire.

Eric Coffey, 21, is wanted for a domestic violence charge in Winchester on May 12, while Aurel Ghiocel, 29, is wanted for an attempted robbery in Winchester Road on May 6, 2014.

David Hall, 29, is wanted for sexual offences on January 26 last year, while Jason Andrews, 45, is being sought for supplying Class A drugs in Liphook on February 26 last year.

And David Keable, 50, is also wanted on warrant for an assault in Melrose Walk on January 1.

Over 100 faces are listed on the 'Most Wanted' gallery for Hampshire and the Isle of Wight, with crimes ranging from burglary, drugs, criminal damage, and assault.

The campaign was first launched in November 2005, with Hampshire's police force now calling for residents to continue to keep their eyes open in order to help track down suspects.

Police and crime commissioner Michael Lane said: "I am delighted to support this Crimestoppers initiative and am heartened to see how the last appeal helped to raise awareness.

"This campaign has allowed the public to be engaged in the work of the police to bring criminals to justice."

Rebecca Colvin, intelligence development manager for Hampshire Constabulary, said: "The anonymous service provided by the charity Crimestoppers and their Most Wanted gallery together with the courage of the local people to speak up about local criminals, is an integral means of law enforcement swiftly tracking down some wanted individuals."

The list can be viewed at crimestoppers-uk.org/most-wanted, with residents urged to contact Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111 if they have any information as to any of the men's whereabouts.

Bowplex gets new £300,000 US revamp

A MAJOR £300,000 redevelopment of Basingstoke's Bowlplex is due to take place next month.

The popular alley, based at Basingstoke Leisure Park, is to get a complete refurbishment and rebrand as it is relaunched as Hollywood Bowl.

Work has already begun at the centre, which will remain open for the duration of the redevelopment, ahead of the work being completed on July 7.

A brand new Hollywood Diner and American bar are part of the transformation, while food will also be delivered directly to the 26 new-look lanes while people play to keep in line with the new US style.

The centre's amusement area has also been given a revamp, with both modern and retro games included in the plans as well as two brand new pool tables.

General manager Shalene Stephens said: "We're incredibly excited about the transformation taking place over the coming month and can't wait to bring the full Hollywood Bowl experience to both new and existing customers.

"The people of Basingstoke deserve to have a fantastic bowling centre on their doorstep and we're looking forward to exceeding their expectations with top class amenities."

Residents are urged to hand over knives

By Christian Wilson

KNIFE amnesty bins have been placed inside Basingstoke police station as part of a national campaign to encourage residents to safely dispose of the blades.

The London Road-based station is one of several across Hampshire to have been chosen to host the bins as part of anti-knife crime scheme Operation Sceptre.

Members of the public will be able to dispose of knives and other bladed articles in the amnesty boxes without fear of repercussions or questioning from the police, in order to help take weapons off the street.

Hampshire Constabulary's Chief Inspector Claire Taylor said: "Fortunately gang related knife crime is very rare in Hampshire.

"We know people carry knives for many reasons including fear, or because they think it will protect them.

"However, in reality carrying a knife puts them at greater risk of being seriously injured or killed, not to mention being arrested for possession of a bladed article."

A total of 343 knife possession offences took place in Hampshire throughout last year, 102 less than in 2014, and 47 per cent less than the 653 offences recorded in 2010.

Being caught carrying a knife can carry a prison sentence of up to four years, even if it is not used.

And Hampshire police are hoping that the launch of Operation Sceptre will help deter residents, as well as educating people about the dangers associated with knives.

Ch Insp Taylor added: "This amnesty is your chance to hand unlawful weapons in and walk away without prosecution and be free from the fear you could be putting yours and your loved ones lives at risk.

"I would urge you to take this opportunity to rid yourselves of any illegal weapons, as we are continually developing intelligence on those believed to be carrying knives or bladed articles.

"We will take a robust approach to anyone found to be illegally in possession of a knife or bladed article on the streets."

Miss Basingstoke secures final spot

A BASINGSTOKE woman will go head to head against the top beauty queens in the country to be named Miss England next month after reaching the final of the competition.

Nicola Ascroft secured her place at the finals of the beauty pageant after being crowned Charity Queen at the semi-final stage of the competition on June 11.

The current Miss Basingstoke beat 70 other girls to impress the judges with her charitable work at the event in Kelham Hall and Country Park in Nottinghamshire.

And having just missed out on a place in the final last year, the 22-year-old was quick to express her delight at securing her place as one of the 50 finalists at the showpiece in Southport on July 19.

She said: "I couldn't be any prouder to be a part of the prestigious Miss England organisation and the ethos it stands for.

"It has changed me for the better; my confidence has grown, charity work has bloomed, and it has enabled me to become the best version of myself."

Nicola has organised a number of fundraising events over the last few months to raise money for charity Beauty With A Purpose, and will host a race night at The Four Hourseshoes in Sherfield-on-Lodden on July 15.

She added: "For me, Charity Queen is the most important award, as it shows hard work, passion and dedication."

Bike warning

HAMPSHIRE: The county council has pleaded with motorists to take longer to look for motorbikes at junctions this summer.

More motorcyclists are expected to take to the roads in Hampshire and beyond as the weather gets warmer.

Riders account for a very small percentage of road traffic, but are still at risk, with 158 motorcyclists either seriously injured or killed in Hampshire last year – a drop of 20 on the previous year.

And Hampshire County Council is hoping to reduce this number substantially still, by launching its 'Think Bike Think Biker' campaign.

Executive member for environment and transport, Rob Humby, said: "Safety is a priority for the authority, and we are committed to doing all we can to encourage everyone to use Hampshire's roads safely."

Forces honoured

BASINGSTOKE AND DEANE: The eighth annual Armed Forces Day was marked in Basingstoke on Monday.

Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council's mayor Jane Frankum led a flag raising ceremony at the council's civic offices in London Road to respect former and current servicemen and women.

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. Romeo and Juliet set in the eighties

ONE of the most recognisable love stories of all time will be making its way to The Haymarket on Thursday, July 7.

'Romeo and Juliet', written by William Shakespeare over 400 years ago, will be performed by students from the Basingstoke Youth Theatre and Proteus Theatre Company as the young actors and actresses try to encourage fellow teenagers to join the respected theatre groups.

With a different spin to the original fable written by Shakespeare, the Wote Street production has been adapted which will include a number of well-known '80s tunes and dances.

See inside for more.

• Actors Reuben Overton and Maebh Howell star as Romeo and Juliet in the production

Taking care of your motor

FASTFIT SERVICE CENTRE LTD

Fastfit Service Centre is located at Unit One, Moniton Trading Estate in West Ham Lane.

And the independent automotive specialist is proud to be expanding in a bid to give its customers exactly what they want. "Everything your car needs is here under one roof", explained manager Byron Lewis who, like his team of experts, has spent a lifetime in the automotive industry.

He added: At Fastfit we offer hourly rates which are some of the best in Basingstoke. No job is beyond us and we are quite simply a one-stop shop and more besides. Whether it's an entire engine overhaul or just tweaking the brakes, we will do it, and do it well."

The business is continually expanding and includes a new mobile tyre fitting and home start service. A comprehensive diagnostic service can also be provided and the business issues many dealer level tools ranging from Ford, Jaguar to Land Rover and Volkswagen.

Fastfit offers everything from MOTs and minor servicing to major repairs and complex engine work.

More complex issues include an Engine Control Unit (ECU) remapping service which makes the vehicle more responsive and smoother to driver. In these tough time, it also slightly increases the miles-per-gallon!

Fastfit Service Centre also stocks a range of budget or performance tyres and it can also custom build stainless steel exhaust systems.

"Come and give us a try. You won't be disappointed," concluded Byron.

My car had been taken to three different repair centres which was suffering from low power none of them diagnosed the problem. I took it to these guys for a remap and full exhaust in the hopes it would fix it. It was better but Byron still thought it wasn't right so spent another couple of hours diagnosing it!

He didn't charge me extra and even finished after they should of closed. You just don't get that kind of service these days. Amazing! Cheers, Clive Baldwin

Excellent service! Very polite and great value for money prices! I will recommend to friends and family. If you need your car repaired at the right price don't look any further.

Great service from the whole of the Fast Fit team. They know what they are talking about and are happy to help with any query.

I wanted something activated on my car that had not been done at the factory. A dealer wanted upwards of £100 to do the job, I contacted Fast Fit and they have the same Dealer Software. Done the job quick and for a third of the price! These guys definitely know what they're talking about and I would recommend them to anyone! Chris H

Shakespeare's iconic tale

IT'S regarded as one of the greatest love stories of all time.

A young man and woman from rival families fall in love and try and keep their relationship a secret.

And the classic tale is being retold with an '80s twist as 'Romeo and Juliet' arrives at The Haymarket in Basingstoke on Thursday, July 7.

The play is performed by a cast of students from the Basingstoke Youth Theatre and Proteus Theatre Company.

And with the show only at the Wote Street venue for one night, Reuben Overton, who plays Romeo, and Maebh Howell, who plays Juliet, hopes they can give the audience a show to remember.

"It is an '80s take on Shakespeare's emotion filled masterpiece," Maebh told the Observer.

I've performed there twice, and I am definitely pleased to be back. Haymarket shows are my favourite to be in.

"I have been with the Basingstoke Youth Theatre for six years and it has been really fun.

"I love drama and action and Romeo and Juliet is a great opportunity for me."

Reuben added: "I have performed at the Haymarket once before in 'Oliver!', so it is great to be performing there again."

By James Richings

The world's most famous love-story was first published in 1597, where it has since been adapted countless times.

The most notable adaptation of recent years was the 1996 movie which starred Oscar winner Leonardo DiCaprio and Claire Danes, which had a modern slant.

And with this version of the play having an '80s theme, Rueben and Maebh hope they can encourage fellow youngsters in the audience to join their respective drama clubs.

"We are making the story more accessible and we're breaking it down so the language is easier to understand," Maebh said.

"Shakespeare is definitely becoming more popular.

ENTERTAINMENT & LISTINGS

No-one will be feeling Low

HE has worked with Eric Clapton, Roger Waters and Bill Wyman.

But now musician Andy Fairweather Low is heading to The Haymarket on Sunday, June 26 with his band The Low Riders.

And with the group heading to Basingstoke for the first time this weekend, the 67-year-old Welshman strongly believes there will be something for everyone at the Wote Street venue, including tunes from his former band Amen Corner.

By James Richings

"The set we play contains music from the Amen Corner catalogue," he told the Observer.

"We can and do play anything we want and that is stuff from surf music, soul music, skiffle, R&B, gospel, you name it.

"I think of myself as a guitar player, and there will be a lot of that too on the night."

As a singer-songwriter who has worked with hundreds of musicians during his career, Andy will look back at his time in the music industry with fond memories.

Since bursting onto the scene back in 1966, the musician has travelled all over the world and has worked with many big names, releasing 10 studio albums along the way.

And Andy revealed that it was down to his own persistence, hard work and gumption that helped him became a musician within the public eye, and hopes he can inspire a younger generation of performers who want to be successful.

"I have worked with nearly everybody I've ever wanted to work with," he said.

"I'm still working with Eric Clapton and that's really special.

"Bill Wyman is a fantastic man who I have worked for 24 years with. He is also a really good friend.

"But I've also worked with George Harrison, so I'm very lucky."

Andy continued: "I didn't listen to any advice as I've always had belief.

"This was a belief I don't have now... funny that.

"And people who are usually on a mission tend not to listen, but you must practice, practice, practice and do some more practicing.

"There are very few exceptions to this rule."

Sunday's gig will start at 7pm and tickets cost £21.

Brass yourselves

FESTIVAL: As part of the Hampshire Festival of Brass, the Hampshire County Youth Bands will be arriving at The Anvil on Sunday, June 26.

The three groups of the Hampshire County Youth, the Hampshire County Training and the Hampshire County Junior Bands will all team up to showcase tunes they have been practicing on over the last few months.

Tickets cost £6 and the gig will start at 3pm.

Robbie tribute act

LIVE MUSIC: A Robbie Williams tribute act will be at The Raven in Hook tomorrow night, Friday, June 24.

Blobbie Williams along with DJ Tony Williams come to the Station Road to perform tunes such as, 'Let Me Entertain You', 'Angles', 'Candy' and many more.

The free gig begins at 9pm.

Formed in 1979 by ex-Manfred Mann members Paul Jones and Tom McGuiness, many of The Blues Band's 21st century fans weren't even born when these five virtuosos, already music industry veterans, decided to fly in the face of musical fashion and form a band 'just to play the blues'.
No one could have predicted that, 35 years on, they'd still be dazzling audiences with their showmanship and virtuosity.
About 20 albums and thousands of gigs later, they've earned a reputation around the world as one of the finest exponents of the blues tradition in all its forms.
With this line-up, it's hardly surprising.

New Peugeot hits showrooms

THE new Peugeot 2008 compact SUV enters UK showrooms next week.

And the carmakers are hailing a timely arrival– when rainfall for June 2016 has already broken all previous June month weather records, having the right car for the UK summer can mean needing one capable of driving in almost any weather condition.

The latest Peugeot 2008 has been updated, re-styled and has superior specification.

They have gone for a more assertive and appealing SUV design, including visual features to give it an enhanced presence; new wheel arch extensions and new vertical front grille and scuff plates confirm its robustness and are designed for everyday use.

The new Ultimate Red colour aims to epitomise the power and desirability of the new 2008.

The Access, Active and Allure option levels are complemented by the new sporty 'GT Line' model.

Peugeot has found this a very popular choice on other key models (108, 208, 308 and 508), and adds a sporty theme throughout.

The Peugeot i-Cockpit is unique to the brand and embodies the driving characteristics of the Peugeot 2008 being agile, intuitive and safe.

The compact sports steering wheel offers precise steering and improved manoeuvrability while the 7" multi-function colour touch screen puts functionality at your fingertips.

In addition, the head-up instrument panel means the driver does not have to take their eyes off the road.

Grip control - an adapted traction system - gives the 2008 its versatility on all types of terrain. It is combined with mud and snow all season tyres.

Peugeot 2008 is also equipped with MirrorScreen, based on Mirror-LinkTM and Apple Carplay, along with the reversing camera, Active City Brake and Park Assist - a rarity in this segment.

The Euro6 engines means an enjoyable ride while remaining fuel efficient.

Peugeot has also said four versions are 'best-in-class' in their segment, including the 1.2L PureTech 130 S&S 6-speed manual.

The 2008 proved popular in 2013 when launched.

The compact SUV is a fast-growing sector, offering versatile capability enhanced by models that feature as standard the accomplished grip control system that set it apart from the competition.

Bountymen bowl over Liphook to pinch win

By Christian Wilson

BASINGSTOKE and North Hants Cricket Club's bowlers came to the rescue on Saturday to snatch a fourth league win of the season.

The Bountymen looked to be in serious danger of losing their home clash with Liphook and Ripsley after being removed for just 151 runs.

But skipper Mitch Stokes led the bowling response with three wickets to extinguish any fears of that to hand Basingstoke a 19-run victory.

The Southern Premier League Division 1 side went into the tie at May's Bounty still reeling from a disappointing loss away to Portsmouth seven days earlier.

A batting total of just 118 proved to be Basingstoke's downfall that day, and the same cracks appeared to be evident on home soil as opener Chris Froud was removed for just four early on in the match.

Replacement Max Harsham went for the same score, with Ben Julin (17) and Stokes (12) then being followed back to the pavilion by Dean Nurse, who was removed by Sean Burton (2-23) for a duck.

When opener Daniel Belcher was finally removed for 32 off his 84th ball faced, the Bountymen looked in big trouble on 83-6, and in serious danger of not making it to triple figures.

But a priceless 54 from Chris Jolley helped save the host's innings to ensure when the final wicket came, they had pushed the score up past the 150-mark.

Two quick fire wickets from Stokes (3-40) and Martyn James (2-25) ensured that the Liphook innings got off to as poor a start as Basingstoke's to this time leave them on 20-2.

And skipper Harry Munt was then sent walking without registering a single run, as he was clean bowled by James.

The fast bowler and Stokes continued to tear through the visitors' batting line up after that, but were once again reliant on their teammate Jolley to land the knock out punch in their favour.

Dan Wreen (20) and especially Suman Ganguly (43) put up some resistance for Liphook, but both fell to the bowling of Jolley to leave them on 108-8.

And Basingstoke made short change of the rest of the tail end after that as Graham Porter, Julin and Ashley Neal each claimed their only wickets of the match to end the tie.

The Bountymen are next in league action on Saturday when they will travel to face Bournemouth at Chapel Gate.

• Basingstoke and North Hants were heavily reliant on their bowlers as they claimed a 19-run win over Liphook and Ripsley

Champions Trophy woe for hockey star

ALEX Danson was unable to inspire at the Hockey Champions Trophy as Great Britain women were handed dispiriting defeats to the Netherlands and New Zealand.

The Odiham hockey star didn't manage to get on the scoreboard in either game to leave the hosts well behind the chasing pack after failing to win any of their opening three matches.

Early pace setters the Oranje made light work of Danson and co on Sunday and stormed into a 1-0 lead two minutes into the second quarter through a Lidewij Welten penalty corner.

And the Dutch took the sting out of the contest midway through the final quarter to put the game out of sight at 2-0 through another penalty corner, this time from Maartje Paumen.

Things didn't get any better for GB on Tuesday night against New Zealand, as they found themselves behind to a great individual goal from Stacey Michelsen just before half-time.

And a great save by Blacksticks keeper Sally Rutherford late on denied a Danson deflected effort to ensure a second loss in the space of a few days.

"The tournament has only just begun and there's a long way to go yet," said Danson.

"We train for tough tournaments like this, so we're physically in very good shape.

"We're fit enough, strong enough and good enough to bounce back from these tough games, so we'll come out fighting for the next match."

GB will return to action later today when they face USA.

Daisy dominates Scottish Grand Prix

BASINGSTOKE powerboat racer Daisy Coleman put in a storming performance over the weekend to move clear at the top of the P1 Superstock standings.

The co-pilot claimed three wins in total over the two-day event at Greenock Esplanade to take overall victory in the first ever P1 Scottish Grand Prix of the Sea.

Around 20,000 people lined the boardwalk in Inverclyde on the Saturday as the second round of the UK season got underway in perfect conditions.

Daisy, who was accompanied by driving brother Sam as part of team Pertemps Network, went into the round on the back of a strong second-placed display in terrible weather in Scarborough.

But after battling their way to third place in the opening race of the opening day, the duo then took control to win both of the next two races and take a big lead into Sunday.

The heavens opened and the mist descended on Sunday to majorly disrupt the racing schedule and allow only one P1 Superstock race to take place.

But that didn't stop Pertemps Network from taking the chequered flag first, to leave the brother and sister crew 21 points clear of their nearest rivals in the official standings going into the next event in Gosport on July 9.

Popley resident Daisy said: "Going into the event we were a little unsure how we would fare, knowing we could hold our own in the rough as we proved in Scarborough.

"And moving onto the Sunday we knew the pressure would be on to maintain our lead.

"But we're over the moon to be on the top step of the podium and to now be leading the championship going into Gosport."

Connolly leaves

Former manager Michael Gilkes signed the 24-year-old in January, with the forward scoring just one goal during his time with the Dragons.

Major shocker

GOLF: Justin Rose had a tournament to forget last week as bad form, coupled with a back injury, saw him miss the cut at the US Open.

The North Hampshire golfer won his one and only major at the tournament in 2013, but struggled at Oakmont from the outset to crash out after two rounds.

Rose completed his first round a day late due to bad weather, but must have wished he hadn't bothered as he finished two-over par (72).

And things got even worse on his second go around the course on Saturday, as the former Robert May's School pupil shot a six-over par score of 76.

Win for Owen

ATHLETICS: Basingstoke's Owen Richardson reaffirmed his position as the UK's number two-ranked under-20 400-metre runner with another strong performance at the weekend.

The teenager claimed victory at the South of England Athletic Championship at Lee Valley, a week after gaining a silver medal at the English Athletics Championships in Bedford against competitors two years his senior.

Mixed fortunes

CRICKET: Hartley Wintney claimed their second win on the spin on Saturday to move up the Southern League Division Two table.

Top scorer Patrick Joseph's 84 helped Hartley finish their innings on 262-7 at Fawley to help pave the way to a 75-run victory.

And in Division One, Hook and Newnham Basics lost by 40 runs to Bournemouth.

COLLARD CLOSES IN ON CHAMPIONSHIP LEADER

ROB Collard "fought like a lion" to claim his second win of the British Touring Car Championship (BTCC) season in Croft on Sunday.

By Christian Wilson

The Hook racer showed all of his experience to make the most of a collision between Subaru pairing Colin Turkington and Jason Plato half way through race two.

And after reacting before his West Surrey Racing (WSR) teammate Jack Goff to capitalise on the mistake in front of him, Collard punished his rivals to hold on and take the chequered flag.

"If in doubt, flat out," said Collard.

"I was boxed in behind Jack Goff but then the two Subarus touched and a gap appeared.

"It was an extremely small gap but it was just big enough to get into, and thankfully Jason gave me room.

"It's a great result for the whole team and really good for our championship."

The 47-year-old didn't have things all his own way on the Yorkshire track as he looked to make up for a frustrating showing at Oulton Park two weeks earlier that didn't see him claim the points tally he deserved.

A misjudged move from Halfords Yuasa Racing's Matt Neal ruined both his and Collard's qualifying session on Saturday, as Neal's Honda Civic Type R clipped the WSR BMW, despite being given enough room to pass cleanly.

That ensured Collard started race one back in 13th spot, with the veteran racer showing good speed to eventually move up to take seventh and become the highest finisher on the hard-compound tyres.

And after race two's heroics, he then put in another solid performance to move up from eighth on the starting grid to claim fourth in the final race of the day after winning his personal duel with Team BMR's Turkington.

The weekend's results mean that Collard is now second in the official standings at the halfway point of the BTCC season, just 12 behind WSR teammate Sam Tordoff.

And having never claimed the title in his long career, Collard insisted that moving up the table on the weekend he marked his 400th BTCC start was "fantastic".

He added: "To bounce back the way we have here after Oulton Park – where we had cracking pace but came away with very little to show for it – is a massive result for the whole team.

"Qualifying at Croft dealt us another blow, but we fought like a lion in all three races and our reward is to be up to second in the championship."

BTCC will now take a summer break, but will return at Snetterton in Norfolk on July 30.
